

California Department of Insurance

APPOINTMENT AVAILABILITY NOTICE: Applicants Sought for Appointment to COIN Advisory Board

California Insurance Commissioner Dave Jones is seeking at least nine (9) qualified applicants to serve as his appointees to the California Organized Investment Network (COIN) Advisory Board.

The COIN Advisory Board will advise COIN on the best methods to increase the level of insurance industry capital in safe and sound investments while providing fair returns to investors and social benefits to underserved communities; facilitate networking among executives in the insurance industry and community organizations seeking investments, and recommend programmatic guidelines to the COIN program.

Qualified applicants:

- three executives in the insurance industry
- and one from each of the following;
 - a licensed attorney practicing insurance law
 - a member of a consumer advocacy group
 - an affordable housing practitioner
 - a local economic development practitioner
 - a member of a financial institution or a community development financial institution
 - a representative with experience seeking investments for low-to moderate-income or rural communities.

Length of appointment: 1 year

Compensation: The members of the board shall not receive compensation from the state for their services under this section but, when called to attend a meeting of the board, non-insurer members may be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the meeting.

This board/commission meets: Four times per year (4)

Application deadline: November 21, 2011

Next Board Hearing: January 18, 2012
